Notes to the Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements For the three and six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016

(unaudited) (in thousands of U.S. dollars, except share data)

1. GENERAL INFORMATION

Excellon Resources Inc. and its subsidiaries (together the Company or Excellon) are involved in the exploration, development and extraction of high-grade silver-lead-zinc metals in Mexico.

Excellon is domiciled in Canada and incorporated under the laws of the province of Ontario. The address of its registered office is 20 Victoria Street, Suite 900, Toronto, Ontario, M5C 2N8, Canada.

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

a. Statement of compliance

These unaudited condensed interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared in compliance with International Financial Reporting Standards (“IFRS”) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board (“IASB”) and Interpretations of the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee (“IFRIC”) which the Canadian Accounting Standards Board has approved for incorporation into Part 1 of the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada including IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting. The condensed interim consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2016.

The accounting policies and the application adopted are consistent with those disclosed in Note 3 to the Company’s consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2016.

Areas of critical accounting estimates and judgments that have the most significant effect on the amounts recognized in the condensed interim consolidated financial statements are disclosed in Note 4 of the Company’s consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2016.

All financial information presented in United States dollars has been rounded to the nearest thousand unless otherwise stated.

These condensed interim consolidated financial statements were approved by the Board of Directors for issue on July 28, 2017.

b. Accounting standards issued but not yet applied

IFRS 9, Financial instruments (“IFRS 9”) was issued by the IASB in November 2009 and will replace IAS 39, “Financial instruments: recognition and measurement” (“IAS 39”). IFRS 9 replaces the multiple rules in IAS 39 with a single approach to determine whether a financial asset is measured at amortized cost or fair value and a new mixed measurement model for debt instruments having only two categories: amortized cost and fair value. The approach in IFRS 9 is based on how an entity manages its financial instruments in the context of its business model and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial assets. The standard is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2018, with early adoption permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of the adoption of this standard on its consolidated financial statements.

IFRS 15, Revenue from contracts with Customers (“IFRS 15”) was issued by the IASB in May 2014. The standard contains a single model that applies to contracts with customers and two approaches to recognizing revenue: at a point in time or over time. The model features a contract-based five-step analysis of transactions to determine whether, how much and when revenue is recognized. New estimates and judgmental thresholds have been introduced, which may affect the amount and/or timing of revenue recognized. IFRS 15 is effective for annual periods beginning on January 1, 2018. The Company is currently evaluating the impact this standard is expected to have on its consolidated financial statements.

Excellon Resources Inc.

Notes to the Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements For the three and six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016

(unaudited) (in thousands of U.S. dollars, except share data)

IFRS 16, Leases ("IFRS 16") was issued on January 13, 2016. The new standard brings most leases onto the balance sheet for lessees under a single model, eliminating the distinction between operating and finance leases. Lessor accounting however remains largely unchanged and the distinction between operating and finance leases is retained. IFRS 16 is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2019. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of IFRS 16 on its consolidated financial statements.

The Company plans to adopt these IFRS accounting standards when these standards become effective, if applicable.

3. MARKETABLE SECURITIES

During Q2 2016, the Company completed the sale of the DeSantis Property to Osisko Mining Inc. ("Osisko") for 837,000 ($843) common shares of Osisko net of commission fees. These securities were classified as a HFT financial instrument. During the three months ended June 30, 2017, the Company sold the 837,000 Osisko common shares for net proceeds of $3,272 (CAD$4,398) and recorded a realized gain of $1,751 into income.

4. VAT RECEIVABLES

VAT (value added tax) receivables comprises of the total VAT credits recoverable by each of the Company's Mexican subsidiaries. In Mexico, VAT credits can only be applied to VAT payable specific to each entity and are non-transferable. The Company's VAT payable position is reflected separately on the balance sheet.

A - Convertible Debentures

The Debentures have a term of four years and are convertible into common shares ("Common Shares") of the Company prior to maturity at a conversion price of CAD$0.50 per Common Share. The Debentures bear interest at an annual rate of 3.75%, payable in cash semi-annually. Interest on the Debentures may alternatively be paid in Common Shares of the Company at the Company's option based on (i) the 10-day volume-weighted average price ("VWAP") of the Common Shares prior to the payment date and (ii) an effective rate of interest of 5% for the applicable period.

The repayments of principal and interest are summarized as follows:

	Within 1 year $	2-5 years (1) $	Total $
Convertible Debentures (principal & interest)	144	4,056	4,200

(1) Assumes that the Debentures are not converted to Common Shares prior to Maturity.

On or after November 27, 2017, the second anniversary of the date of issue and prior to maturity, the Company may accelerate the conversion of the Debentures as follows: (i) 50% of the principal amount, provided that the 20-day VWAP of the Common Shares is CAD$1.10; and (ii) the remaining 50% principal amount provided that the 20-day VWAP of the Common Shares is CAD$1.40.

On May 27, 2017 or the "Put Date", Debenture holders will have the option to request repayment in cash of the outstanding principal amount of the Debentures plus accrued interest by providing the Company with two months prior written notice (the "Notice Date") and a one month period for repayment following the Put Date. As of the Notice Date, no requests were made by Debenture holders for early repayment and, consequently, no early repayment will be required.

Excellon Resources Inc.

Notes to the Condensed Interim Consolidated Financial Statements For the three and six months ended June 30, 2017 and 2016

(unaudited) (in thousands of U.S. dollars, except share data)

The Company also issued a total of 2,002,772 Common Share purchase warrants (“$0.50 Warrants”) to the purchasers of the Debentures in connection with the financing. Each $0.50 Warrant is exercisable at a price of CAD$0.50 for a period of four years from the date of issuance.

In accordance with IAS 39, Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement, the Debentures are considered to contain an embedded derivative relating to the conversion option. The conversion option was valued upon initial recognition at fair value using an option pricing model and was separated from the debt component of the Debentures. The debt component of the Debentures was measured upon initial recognition, based on the present value of the cash flows associated with the Debentures. Subsequent to initial recognition, the embedded derivative component is re-measured at fair value at each reporting date while the debt component is accreted to the face value of the Debentures using the effective interest rate through periodic charges to finance expense over the term of the Debentures. Accretion for the three months ended June 30, 2017 was $70. Accretion for the six months ended June 30, 2017 was $141.

Fair value adjustment gain for the embedded derivative relating to the conversion option for the three months ended June 30, 2017 was $1,480, which was recorded in finance cost. Fair value adjustment gain for the embedded derivative for the six months ended June 30, 2017 was $2,501.

Also in accordance with IAS 39, Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement, the $0.50 Warrants were detached from the convertible Debentures host contract and recognized as a separate financial liability. The $0.50 Warrants were fair valued using the Black-Scholes Model upon initial recognition based on the $0.50 Warrants terms. The fair value adjustment gain of the $0.50 Warrants for the three months ended June 30, 2017 was $253, which was recorded in finance cost. The fair value adjustment of the $0.50 Warrants for the six months ended June 30, 2017 was $314.

During the six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company paid interest of $98 on the Debentures in Common Shares issuing 89,981 Common Shares.

During the three months ended June 30, 2017, $nil principal amount of Debentures were converted into common shares. During the six months ended June 30, 2017, $30 (CAD$40) principal amount of Debentures were converted into 80,000 common shares. DEFERRED SHARE UNITS ("DSU")

The Company has implemented a DSU plan, primarily in respect of director compensation, whereby DSUs granted may be paid in cash or in awards of Common Shares either from treasury or from market purchases based on the five-day volume weighted average price ("Market Price") of the Common Shares on settlement dates elected by the holder between the retirement date and December 15th of the calendar year subsequent to the year of the holder's retirement. All grants under the plan are fully vested upon credit to an eligible holder's account. The value of the cash payout is determined by multiplying the number of DSUs vested at the payout date by the Market Price of Common Shares. 13. REVENUES

Under the terms of the Company's concentrate sales contracts, lead-silver and zinc-silver concentrates are sold on a provisional pricing basis whereby sales are recognized at prevailing metal prices when the revenue recognition criteria have been met, namely when title, and risks and rewards of ownership have transferred to the customer. Revenue is recorded net of treatment and refining charges. Final pricing of each delivery is not determined until one or two months post-delivery. The price recorded at the time of sale may differ from the actual final price received from the customer due to changes in market prices for metals. The price volatility is considered an embedded derivative in accounts receivable. The embedded derivative is recorded at fair value by mark-to market adjustments at each reporting period until settlement occurs, with the changes in fair value recorded to revenues. An amount of $1,026 is included in the trade receivables as at June 30, 2017 (as at June 30, 2016 – $1,915).

During the three months ended June 30, 2017, the Company recognized negative adjustment to revenues of $225 primarily related to the reversal of the mark to market taken at the end of March 31, 2017 as receivables were ultimately settled at lower values during the quarter (three months ended June 30, 2016 – positive adjustment of $365).

During the six months ended June 30, 2017, the Company recognized negative adjustments to revenues of $17 primarily related to the reversal of the mark to market taken at the end of 2016 as receivables were ultimately settled at lower values in 2017 (six months ended June 30, 2016 – positive adjustment of $265).

18. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

Fair Values of non-derivative financial instruments

All financial assets and financial liabilities, other than derivatives, are initially recognized at the fair value of consideration paid or received, net of transaction costs as appropriate, and subsequently carried at fair value or amortized cost. The carrying values of cash and cash equivalents, trade receivables and other liabilities approximate their fair value. The methods and assumptions used in estimating the fair value of other financial assets and liabilities are as follows:

Embedded derivatives

Revenues from the sale of metals produced since the commencement of commercial production are based on provisional prices at the time of shipment. Variations between the price recorded at the time of sale and the actual final price received from the customer are caused by changes in market prices for metals sold and result in an embedded derivative in accounts receivable. The embedded derivative is recorded at fair value each reporting period until settlement occurs, with the changes in fair value recorded to revenues.

For the three months ended June 30, 2017, the Company recorded $2,887 (three months ended June 30, 2016 - $3,781) in revenues from provisionally priced sales on the statement of loss and comprehensive income (loss), which are subject to adjustment pending final settlement in the third quarter of 2017. As at June 30, 2017, the Company has recorded embedded derivatives in the amount of $1,026 in trade receivables (as at June 30, 2016 – $1,915).

Fair Value of derivative financial instruments

The following is a summary of the amortized cost and fair value of the Company's Debentures and outstanding common share purchase warrants as at June 30, 2017:

	Amortized Cost $	Fair Value $
Financial liabilities
Convertible Debt	3,065	3,907
	3,065	3,907

Fair Value Hierarchy

The Company values financial instruments carried at fair value using quoted market prices, where available. The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

- Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2 – Inputs other than quoted prices that are observable for the asset or liability either directly or indirectly; and
- Level 3 – Inputs that are not based on observable market data

The financial liabilities are presented by class in the following table at their carrying values, which generally approximate to the fair values due to their short period to maturity:

	Fair value hierarchy	June 30, 2017 $	Dec 31, 2016 $
Financial assets
Fair value through profit and loss
Marketable securities	Level 1	-	1,521
Financial liabilities

Embedded Derivative Liability	Level 3	7,813	10,068
Purchase Warrants	Level 3	1,404	1,673
		9,217	11,741

There were no transfers between levels 1, 2 or 3 during the three months ended June 30, 2017.

Risk management policies and hedging activities

The Company is sensitive to changes in commodity prices, foreign exchange and interest rates. The Company's board of directors has overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Company's risk management framework. The Company addresses its price-related exposures through the use of options, futures, forwards and derivative contracts.

Economic dependence

The Company has offtake agreements with two customers, Trafigura and MK Metal Trading Mexico, S.A. de C.V. ("MK Metals"). The Company believes that because of the availability of alternative processing and commercialization options for its concentrate, it would suffer no material adverse effect if it lost the services of Trafigura or MK Metals.

Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk of unexpected loss if a customer or third party to a financial instrument fails to meet its contractual obligations. The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to cash and cash equivalents. Management believes the credit risk on cash and cash equivalents is very low since the Company's cash and cash equivalents balance are held at large international financial institutions with strong credit ratings.

The Company is exposed to credit risk from its customers, Trafigura and MK Metals. Accounts receivable are subject to normal industry credit risks and are considered low.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet its liabilities when due. To the extent the Company does not believe it has sufficient liquidity to meet these obligations, management will consider securing additional funds through equity or debt transactions. Accounts payable excluding accrued liabilities are due within 90 days or less.

Currency risk

The Mexican peso (MXN) and the Canadian dollar are the functional currencies of the Company and as a result currency exposures arise from transactions and balance in currencies other than the functional currencies. The Company's potential currency exposures comprise:

- translational exposure in respect of non-functional currency monetary items
- transactional exposure in respect of non-functional currency expenditure and revenues;
- commodity price risk; and
- interest rate risk.

Translational exposure in respect of non-functional currency monetary items

Monetary items, including financial assets and liabilities, denominated in currencies other than the functional currency of an operation are periodically revalued to the functional currency equivalents as at that date, and the associated unrealized gain or loss is taken to the income statement to reflect this risk.

The principal non-functional currency to which the Company is exposed is the United States dollar (USD). Based on the Company's net financial assets and liabilities in USD as at June 30, 2017, a weakening of the USD against the MXN and CAD functional currencies by 1% with all other variables held constant, would increase/(decrease) net loss and equity by approximately $15.

Transactional exposure in respect of non-functional currency expenditure and revenues

Certain operating and capital expenditures are incurred by some operations in currencies other than their functional currency. To a lesser extent, certain sales revenue is earned in currencies other than the functional currency of operations, and certain exchange control restrictions may require that funds be maintained in currencies other than the functional currency of the operation.

At June 30, 2017, the Company has entered into forward exchange contracts to manage short-term foreign currency cash flows relating to operating activities.

Commodity price risk

The nature of the Company's operations results in exposure to fluctuations in commodity prices. Management continuously monitors commodity prices of silver, lead and zinc.

The Company is particularly exposed to the risk of movements in the price of silver. Declining market prices for silver could have a material effect on the Company's profitability, and the Company does not hedge its exposure to silver. The London Silver Spot price average, in USD per ounce, was $17 in the six months ended June 30, 2017 (six months ended June 30, 2016 – $16). The Company estimates that a 10% increase/decrease in commodity prices in 2017 with all other variables held constant would have resulted in an increase/decrease in net loss of approximately $807.

Interest rate risk

Cash and cash equivalents earn interest at floating rates dependent upon market conditions.

19. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The Company's objectives of capital management are intended to safeguard the entity's ability to continue as a going concern and to continue the exploration and extraction of ore from its mining properties.

The capital of the Company consists of the items included in shareholders' equity. Risk and capital management are monitored by the board of directors. The Company manages the capital structure and makes adjustments depending on economic conditions. Funds have been primarily secured through issuances of equity capital. The Company invests all capital that is surplus to its immediate needs in short-term, liquid and highly rated financial instruments, such as cash and other short-term deposits, all held with major financial institutions. Significant risks are monitored and actions are taken, when necessary, according to the Company's approved policies.
